

Doug Wordekemper

Class of 1995

2022 Hall of Fame Inductee

1st Team All-Coon River Valley Conference
(1994 - 1995)

Doug Wordekemper was a standout basketball player during his Panther years from 1992-1995. His shooting prowess helped him compile many impressive statistics. He currently ranks 8th in school history with 1052 career points. His 24.6 points per game scoring average his senior year is 5th highest in school history, as is his 125 career 3-pointers made. Wordekemper averaged 18.4 points per game during his junior season.

Wordekemper steadily improved each year of his high school career. He scored 174 points during his sophomore campaign, which was 23rd most by a sophomore in school history. During his next season, he poured in 386 points, good for the 8th most in school history by a junior. Finally, in his last season, Wordekemper amassed 492 points, which stands as the 11th most in a single season in school history. In addition to the scoring totals, Wordekemper pulled down 352 career rebounds.

In both his junior and senior seasons, Wordekemper earned 1st Team All-Coon River Valley Conference honors. As a senior he was named 1st Team Class 1A All-State by the Des Moines Register and the Iowa Newspaper Association. Wordekemper was also 2nd Team All-Northwest Iowa his senior year. Lastly, he was selected to participate in the Iowa All-Star Classic at UNI.

While dominant in basketball, Wordekemper was also a key contributor on the 1993 State Baseball Championship Team as a sophomore.

Following high school, Wordekemper played one season of basketball at Buena Vista University before transferring to the University of Iowa where he graduated in 2000. Doug and his wife, Jill, live in Glen Ellyn, IL. They have 4 children - Bennett (17), Carson (15), Addy (13), and Tinsu (9). Doug works for Axis Capital Holdings in Chicago and has worked there for 19 years. Doug has enjoyed coaching baseball and basketball for all his kids.